EDITOR

Avid (all versions), Premiere Pro & FCP7

Offline and online

10+ years experience

Alec Rossiter is a freelance editor with experience across drama, documentary and advertising. He has edited feature films, he has prime time offline & online broadcast editing credits and cuts on Avid, Premiere or FCP7. A technical background is complimented by proven creative ability and a very strong eye for storytelling:

Alec is also a screenwriter and has written two feature screenplays, he has had a short script produced on super16mm film and his latest short screenplay was chosen for final selection at the 2012 British Independent Film Festival.

Speaking Pictures is Alec's independent production company. In production is a feature documentary It Must Be Said (produced and directed by Alec Rossiter).

Alec started his filmmaking career over a decade ago when he practiced Film Production BA (Hons) at Westminster Film School - the UK's leading vocational film degree course that consistently produces Student Academy Award nominated films.

He was a senior edit assistant at major film and TV facilities Molinare and Evolutions before going freelance.
