PROFILE

With many years of experience Ilan has worked on a wide variety of programming; from documentaries and nonfiction series, through short dramas and advertisements to corporate videos. Ilan has a keen sense of pace and excellent storytelling sensibilities. His experience as producer, director and teacher helps him see the bigger picture while not losing sight of the detail.

DOCUMENTARY/ BROADCAST

“Pain has no tomorrow”

45 minute documentary,

Twenty years after the death of a young Israeli soldier his family and friends try to come to terms with the loss. While some are obsessed with the death others have held on to the living memories, and the pain is ever-present, and growing.

Sister Talk Productions for Channel 2, Israel

“Camel Rally”

40 min documentary

One of series of individual high octane motor sport documentaries Ilan co-produced and directed for Israel's Channel 2 and “Sports Channel” during the 1990's. This time all-terrain vehicles and motorbikes navigate and race for 3 days and nights through the Negev desert. Some parts are pure action while others are “human interest” vignettes looking at what makes the competitors tick.

'Vazir Productions' for Channel 2, Israel

“Our town Zetl”

55 min documentary

The story of a predominantly Jewish town in Belarus. Survivors tell the story of a happy childhood, occupation by Nazi Germany and the heroic fight for survival in the forests as partisans. Over 100 hours of interviews put together with compiled archive footage to tell the story from an ever shifting point of view.

'Vazir Productions' for Museum of the Diaspora

“Horra Vekadima”

5x27 min Documentary mini-series, (also director)

A mini series produced for Israel's Channel 2 looking at the development of Israeli folk dancing, combining interviews and performance for a multicultural tapestry of traditional and contemporary dance. A mixture of multi - camera OB work and single camera EFP.
